

Topic Shifting

In the example below the individual is presented with a visual support that limits how long he can spend talking about a topic. Essentially, the message of the First/Then display is the individual can talk about trains for 10 minutes, but then must talk about a new topic selected from six options.

First...	Then pick something new to talk about...
Talk about trains for 10 minutes  	baseball 	American Idol 	homework
