

Before I begin talking to a person, I need to decide if it is a good time to speak with him/her.

Good

1. In the car, bus, train, etc.
2. When eating (not with food in my mouth)
3. While taking a walk
4. On the telephone
5. At the end of class, when teacher is finished teaching
6. While shopping
7. During social activities (games, sports, parties)
8. When someone asks me a question
9. While waiting (for a bus, in waiting room, etc.)
10. When someone is happy, looking at me, and smiling

NOT Good

1. They are on the telephone
2. They are talking to someone else
3. They are listening to someone else speak (teacher)
4. They are in the bathroom
5. They are sleeping
6. They are writing or reading
7. They are angry
8. They tell you to wait a minute
9. During a service or ceremony (church, temple, school assembly)
10. They are exercising
11. They are working
